evening was the annual reception A evening was the annual reception for the Episcopal convocation at the home of Bishop F. S. Spalding at which the bishop and his mother received more than 200 of the members of the various parishes in benor of the visiting clergymen in attendance. The beautiful home was bright with flowers, yellow and white predominating. Yellow roses in great sprays and yellow iris decorated the pariors and the study, but in the dining room pure white syring a bioseoms were used for the table, which was most effectively decked. Receiving in the drawing room with the bishop and his mother were Dean and Mrs. Samuel Colladay and the Rev. and Mrs. Ward W. Reese, while the other clergymen were nearby to meet the visitors. The ladies of the various guilds. Marks, St. Peters, St. Pauls and the Garfield mission, all took part in serving in the dining room, some pouring coffee at the table and others assisting. The rooms were througed with friends during the entire evening and a few hours were spent most delightfully in the exchange of greetings. for the Episcopal convocation at

Leave or telephone all orders for GUSTAV DINKLAGE,

Of course we think the cigar business is the most interesting business there is.

It takes years of constant study and experience to make a man capable of exactly suiting a smoker's taste with the right cigar on the slightest hint of what he likes or does not like.

Human nature is peculiar and tastes change and vary-oftentimes what tastes good today is no good tomorrow. One of the most constantly satisfactory and uniformly pleasing cigars in our whole stock is the ORLANDO Caballero, a mild Domestic cigar at 3 for a quarter.

Clear Havana Smokers often like to change to a good Domestic for awhile-lots of us like a mild cigar in the morning-many like mild cigars all the time.

If you ever want to smoke a good light cigar-something very mild and rich and pleasing, ask for the
